

Parenting Classes That focus on enhancing the parent-child interaction and bond

Intensive social work case management services are provided as part of the program

Family School

Family Support Services' interactive parenting program for parents with birth to five year-old children

The "hands-on" program that works to improve parenting knowledge and practice by bringing the parents and children together in a fully equipped learning environment.

NEW—Starting March 6th, 2010
Family School will launch extended hours to support parents who work or go to school:

Wednesday Evenings (5:30 pm-7:30 pm)

and

Saturday Half-days (9:00 am-12:30 pm)

NOW—Family School is currently available to parents for two full days a week:

Mondays & Wednesdays

or

Tuesdays & Thursdays

We teach all the essential parenting skills

- ⇒ Child development
- ⇒ Positive discipline
- ⇒ Nutrition
- ⇒ Attachment and bonding skills
- ⇒ Life skills
- ⇒ Well child and well adult care
- ⇒ Supporting each child's early childhood literacy and school readiness

We also provide intensive social work case management services

Through the DHS central referral unit
DHS Directory —
Day Treatment Provider Number 6556DT0002

Family Support Services Inc. is an Equal Opportunity Employer (EOE) & an Equal Opportunity Care Provider (EOCP)

For program information or to refer a family call—Michelle McCoy-Griffin at 215-438-9890
(Family School Intake —email: mmccoygriffin@fssinc.org)
Petra Stepp at 215-726-1541 (Family School Program Director—email: pstepp@fssinc.org)
FAMILY SCHOOL SITE LOCATION—5322 Woodland Ave. Phila., PA 19134